IN HIS OWN WORDS

MUSIC AND MEMORY

“For me, music is a kind of teleportation. It can take someone back to a particular moment in their life, completely change how they feel, lift their spirits or motivate them.”

IN HIS OWN WORDS

THE ENERGY OF THE ROOM

“What I enjoy most is shaping the energy of a space. Every room and every audience is different. I enjoy finding the right key, making a connection, then gradually guiding people and giving them something they did not expect to hear.”

DAVID KREC

Translated from Russian.

OPEN FORMAT

“My style is Open Format, without rigid genre boundaries, but with a clear musical logic. I bring together different genres, my own creative ideas, unexpected transitions and elements of turntablism. For me, technique always serves the music; it is never just a display of skill.”

DAVID KREC

Translated from Russian.

WHAT THE AUDIENCE TAKES HOME

“I want my performance to stay with people emotionally, leaving them with the feeling that the evening was special. Energy, freedom, mood and an element of surprise matter to me: that moment when familiar music reveals itself in a completely different way.”

DAVID KREC

Translated from Russian.
